

Visit www.graphic.com.gh

Mobus makes Ghana proud

MOBUS Property Development made Ghana proud when it swept four awards at the 19th International Property Awards ceremony in Dubai.

The four awards, with three in the five star category, were won in the African and Arabian division of the awards. The awards were "Best Office Development, Best Residential, Multiple Unit Development and Best Multiple Use Development."

The Phoenix Villas at East Legon won in the five star series for "Development Multiple Units, Ghana." Capital Place, the first office park at the Airport Residential Area in Accra, won five star in "Best office Development. Knight Court at Cantonments, Accra, was commended for the modern, yet classic design, while Meridian City, a mixed use

@ A
glance

• Mobus Property Development, a private Ghanaian company swept four awards at the 19th International Property Awards ceremony in Dubai.

"The African and Arabian Property Awards are a great litmus test for the very best in the industry and it is our honour to be recognised."
- Mr Richard Jonah.

project set for construction next year at Tema, that comprises a retail mall, a hotel and office block also won five star as the Best Mixed Use Development."

Significance of awards

Speaking to the Daily Graphic on the awards, Mr Richard Jonah, the Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Mobus Property Development, said "the awards reflect the hard work and commitment Mobus Property Development has shown over the past year. Being judged by our peers is an acknowledgment of our continued efforts to conceptualise, build and deliver."

He added with excitement that the award "cements our ambition to add positively to the infrastructure landscape of Ghana. The African and Arabian Property Awards are a great litmus test for the very best in the industry and it is our honour to be recognised."

Mobus Property Development was set up in 2011 as a private residential and commercial developer in Ghana. It has since expanded in Accra and Abuja, Nigeria, with plans to expand further in the sub-region. It has a diverse range of expertise that allows them to have oversight and management of all aspects of a project right from the acquisition of land, appointment of architects and designers, construction and sales to after sales service.

International Property Awards

The International Property Awards, established in 1995, is open to residential and commercial property professionals globally. The awards are divided into regions covering Africa, Asia Pacific, Arabia, Canada, Caribbean, Central and South America, Europe, UK and USA.

The highest scoring winners from each region are automatically entered into the overall international awards, which ultimately determine the world's finest properties and real estate professionals.

• Richard Jonah, CEO of Mobus Property Development and Fidel Jonahon, of the Jonah Group, displaying the awards.